CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1949, along with the brilliance of leaves, came the Freshman Class of 145 students. Class officers for that year were: Ethel Pinkham, President; Rose Ellen Wedge, Secretary-Treasurer; Dorothy Stratton, Vice-President. Our first honor roll showed evidence of "future Einsteins," but in our Sophomore year as our interest and participation increased, fewer students reached the 85 average. Our leaders were: David Gass, President; Edward MacDonald, Secretary-Treasurer; Timothy O'Connor, Vice-President.

As Roger MacLeod, our class Marshal, raised the green and white baton, the long awaited Junior Exhibition began. Speakers were: Jane Crook, Dean Footman, Patricia Harmon, Richard Higgins, Robert Hodgdon, Donald Jennings, Carolyn Perkins, Sherry Wentworth. Junior Class officers were: Paul Travis, President; Chester Kuchinski, Vice-President; David Gass, Secretary-Treasurer; Roger MacLeod, Class Marshal.

At long-last came September of 1952, and we assumed the coveted roll of sedate Seniors. After a heated campaign Roger MacLeod was elected President; Robert Adams, Vice-President; Barbara Nelson, Secretary; Judy Patterson, Treasurer.

Just before the anxiously awaited Christmas vacation, our Senior play, "We Shook the Family Tree," was presented under the able direction of Mrs. Barbara Browne, assisted by Claudia Clark. The cast included Pat Harmon, Robert Hodgdon, Jane Crook, Rose Ellen Wedge, Timothy O'Connor, Dean Footman, Dorothy Stratton, Ruth Crockett, Margaret Sanders, Donald Jennings, James Hainer, and Carolyn Perkins.

As we leave the halls of Brewer High School, filled with pleasant memories of the past four years, we look forward to a bright future.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

At the beginning of each school year 12 cheerleaders for football are selected by three members of the faculty and the head cheerleader or co-cheerleaders. Eight Freshmen and Sophomores are chosen for a pep squad which attends all games with the varsity. Later in the year six of the 12 football varsity are chosen for basketball cheerleaders. Six others are chosen from the remaining varsity and pep squad to make a Junior varsity. The remaining ones make up a pep squad.

The girls are selected on the following qualifications: appearance, cooperation, coordination, dependability, leadership, personality, poise, rhythm, self-control and voice. The candidates must be passing all subjects and those in the upper part of the class are preferred.

Cheerleading is carried on as part of the State G. A. A. program under the direction of Lura Hoit, director of girls' physical education.

SEASON'S SUMMARY

Brewer had a very successful season this year, winning seven games and losing only two against the best competition in Eastern Maine.

These two losses came at the hands of Morse, State Class M Champions, and arch-rival Bangor. Both were thrillers.

Despite the fact that head coach Fern Tetreau and line coach Al Angelosante will lose seven men from this year's squad, Brewer will nevertheless field a sound team next fall.

Coach Tetreau

Those who graduated this year were Jim O'Connor, Roger MacLeod, Jim Hooper, Lennie Ford, Bob Adams, and Dave Gass.

Seth Gilman, the seventh player, enlisted in the service.

1952 GRIDIRON REMINISCENCES

This season's aggregation opened the 1952 football season in grand style, as they walloped Madison 27 to 0. The running of Tim O'Connor, Eddie Dean, and Bob Bower, and powerful line play were the deciding factors in the initial win.

On the second outing of the campaign against Morse of Bath, Brewer succumbed in a bitter, hard-fought battle. Morse won the game by a score of 19 to 7. The running of Eddie Dean and Bobby Bower highlighted the game.

Brewer bounced right back on the win column the following week as they whipped the Skowhegan Indians 21 to 0 in a driving rainstorm. The entire team played a superb game despite the hazardous conditions.

We racked up our third win the following Saturday night as we belted the Indians of Old Town, 33 to 6. "Swivel-hipped" Bobby Bower and hard-driving Eddie Dean once again highlighted the game with their brilliant running.

The Tetreaumen compiled their fourth win in five starts in their next encounter by soundly thumping Rockland 52 to 0. Bobby Bower, Eddie Dean, Jim Hooper and the entire Brewer line led the attack in this one.

The Orange and Black clad Brewerites made it four in a row at Fairfield on the next weekend as they rolled to a decisive 25 to 17 win over the hapless Fairfielders. Eddie Dean and Bobby Bower once again led the attack as they literally swept the Lawrence boys off their feet.

The witches added Bapst to their list of victims in their next encounter in a well-played contest. The game was hard-fought all the way, but the Witch City boys finally eked out a 6 to 0 win. Big Jim Hooper scored the only T. D. of the game and was a standout throughout the contest.

For the second time in a row the Witches ran into a tough foe, this time the Stearns Minutemen. After being hard-pressed right down to the wire, the Brewer boys again came out on top as they edged Stearns of Millinocket 20 to 18. "Hula-hipped" Bobby Bower and power-driven Eddie Dean played standout games in a winning cause.

We lost our second game of the campaign on Armistice Day as we bowed to the powerful Bangor Rams 25 to 20. The Rams were forced all the way before winning in the final thirty-five seconds. Once again the entire Brewer squad played a bang-up game. If any one individual were to be pointed out for his play, it would be our Sophomore whiz, Bobby Bower. Bobby was all over the field against the Bangorites. He scored 20 points against the Rams in his superb performance.

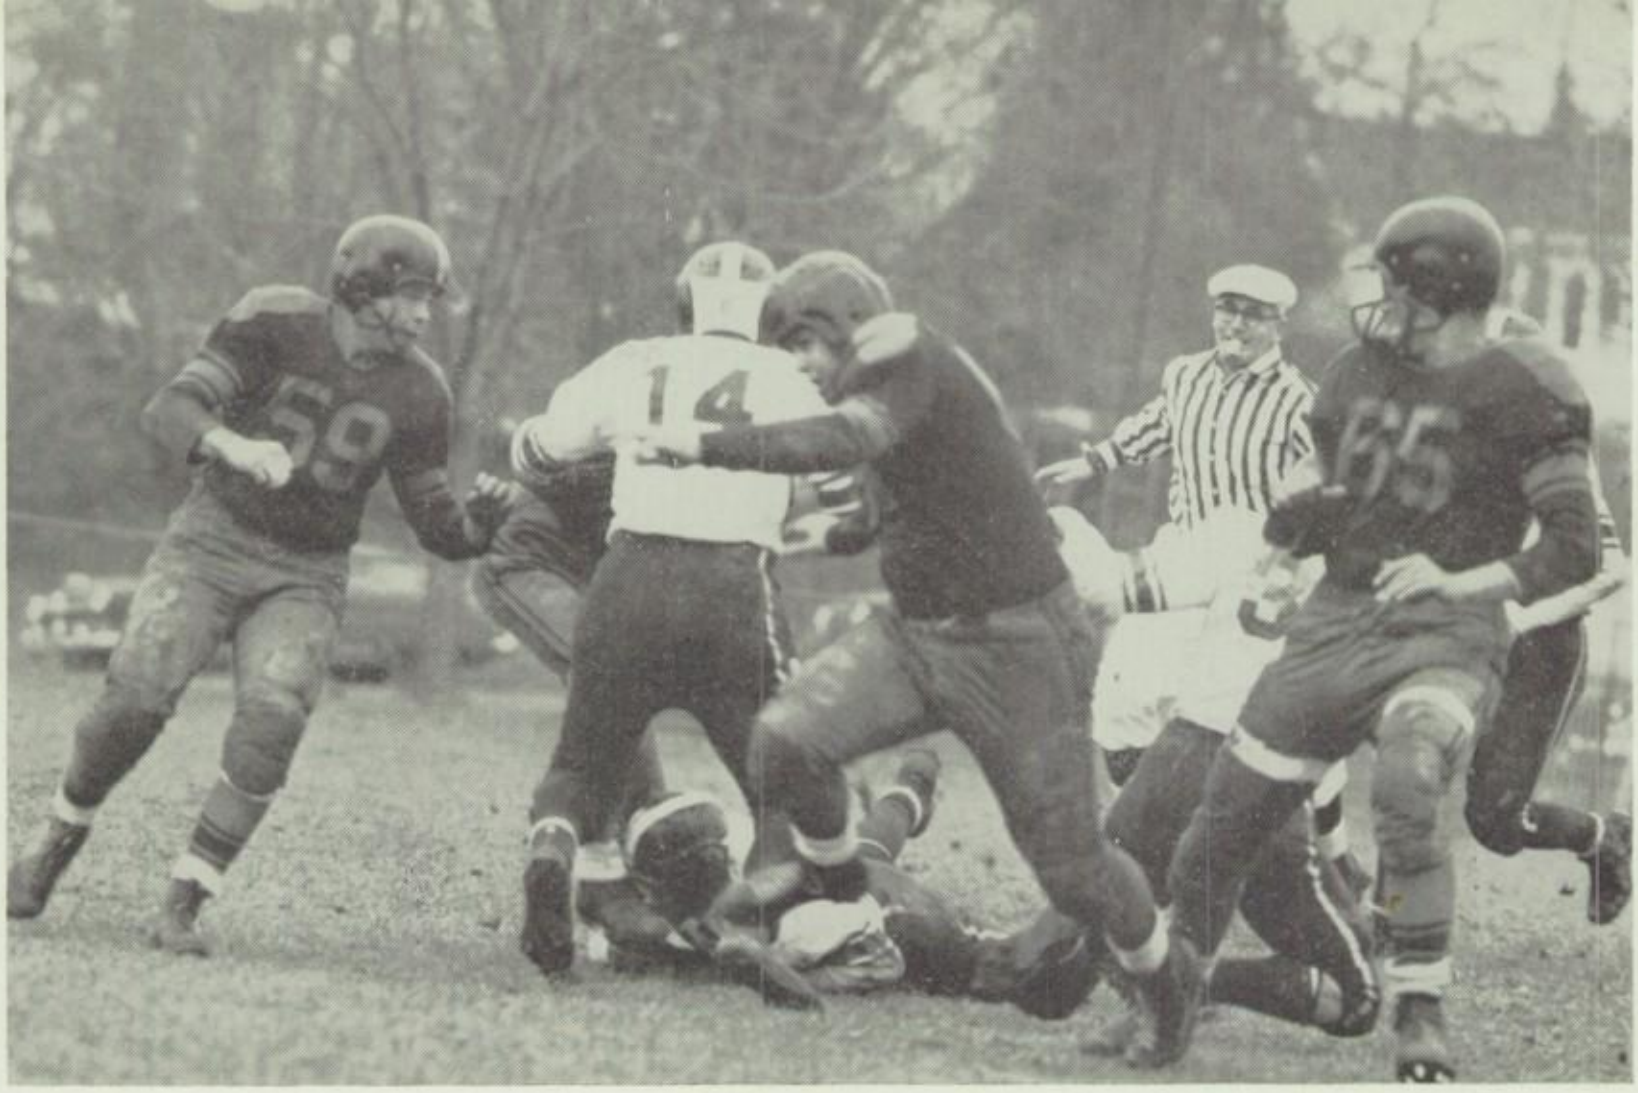
1952 SEASON



Where Is He ?

That might be what Jim Hooper (65), Bob Adams (Middle of picture), and Dave Gass (54) might be saying as they search for their Ram foe. This is typical of the action that took place at Doyle Field on Amistice Day. Bangor won in the last 35 seconds, 25 to 20.

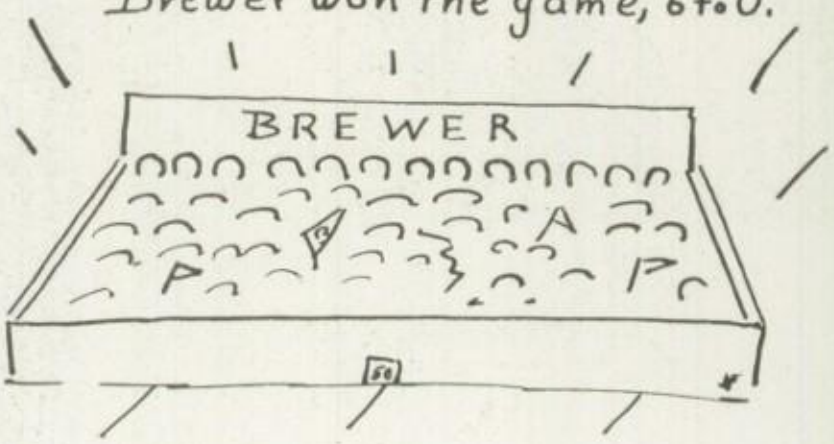
Get That Ram !!

That is what Witch linemen Dick MacDonald (47), Jim Hooper (65), Rollie Gray, and "Baldy" MacLeod must be thinking as they burl after Gerry Reynolds (29), Bangor fullback. Reynolds was stopped after a short gain.

Bower On The Move —

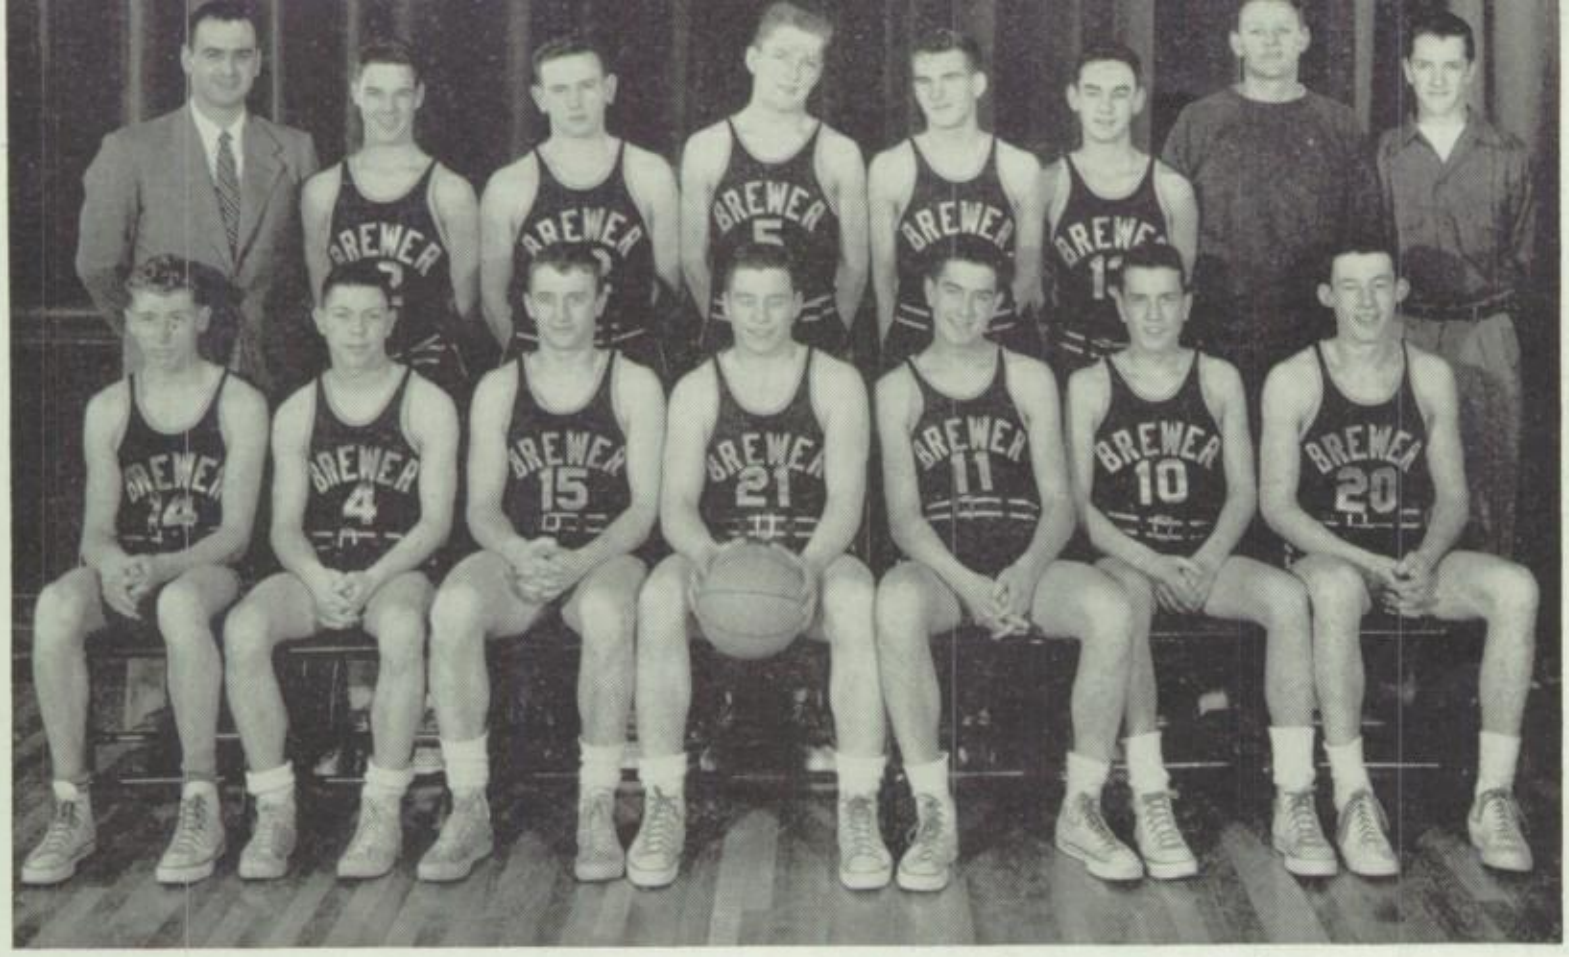
Bob Bower, flashy sophomore back, is shown picking up twenty precious yards against the John Bapst Crusaders.

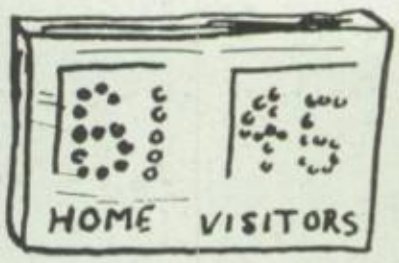
Brewer won the game, 6 to 0.



There He Goes —

Eddie Dean, our power-driven speedster, is shown getting by two Bapst foes in the inter-city clash at Garland Street in Bangor. Teammate Lennie Ford comes up from behind to aid Dean.





First Row: Jim Winchester, Jackie Miller, Eddie Dean, Dave Gass, Bud Augherton, Dave Allen, Charlie Knowlen.

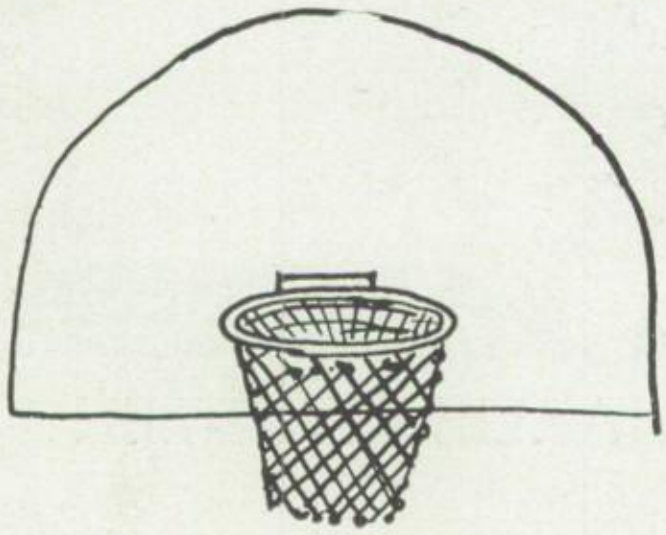
VARSITY BASKETBALL SQUAD



1952-1953 HOOP SUMMARY

The Brewer quintet under the expert guidance of our likable Coach Al Angelosante started the season with three lettermen: Eddie Dean, Bobby Wiles and Dave Gass. The Witches had only a mediocre season, winning eight and losing a like number. Although the Brewer team was not of tournament calibre this year, they nevertheless gave a creditable account of themselves during the season.

Those receiving letters this year are as follows: Eddie Dean, Bud Augherton, Jackie Miller, Dave Gass, Dave Allen, Charles Knowlen, Bobby Wiles and Bobby Bower.

The lone Senior on this year's club was Dave Gass. Next year's team will have a half dozen veterans and five other team members from this year's hoop squad.

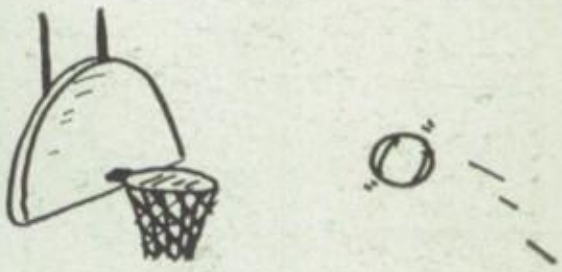
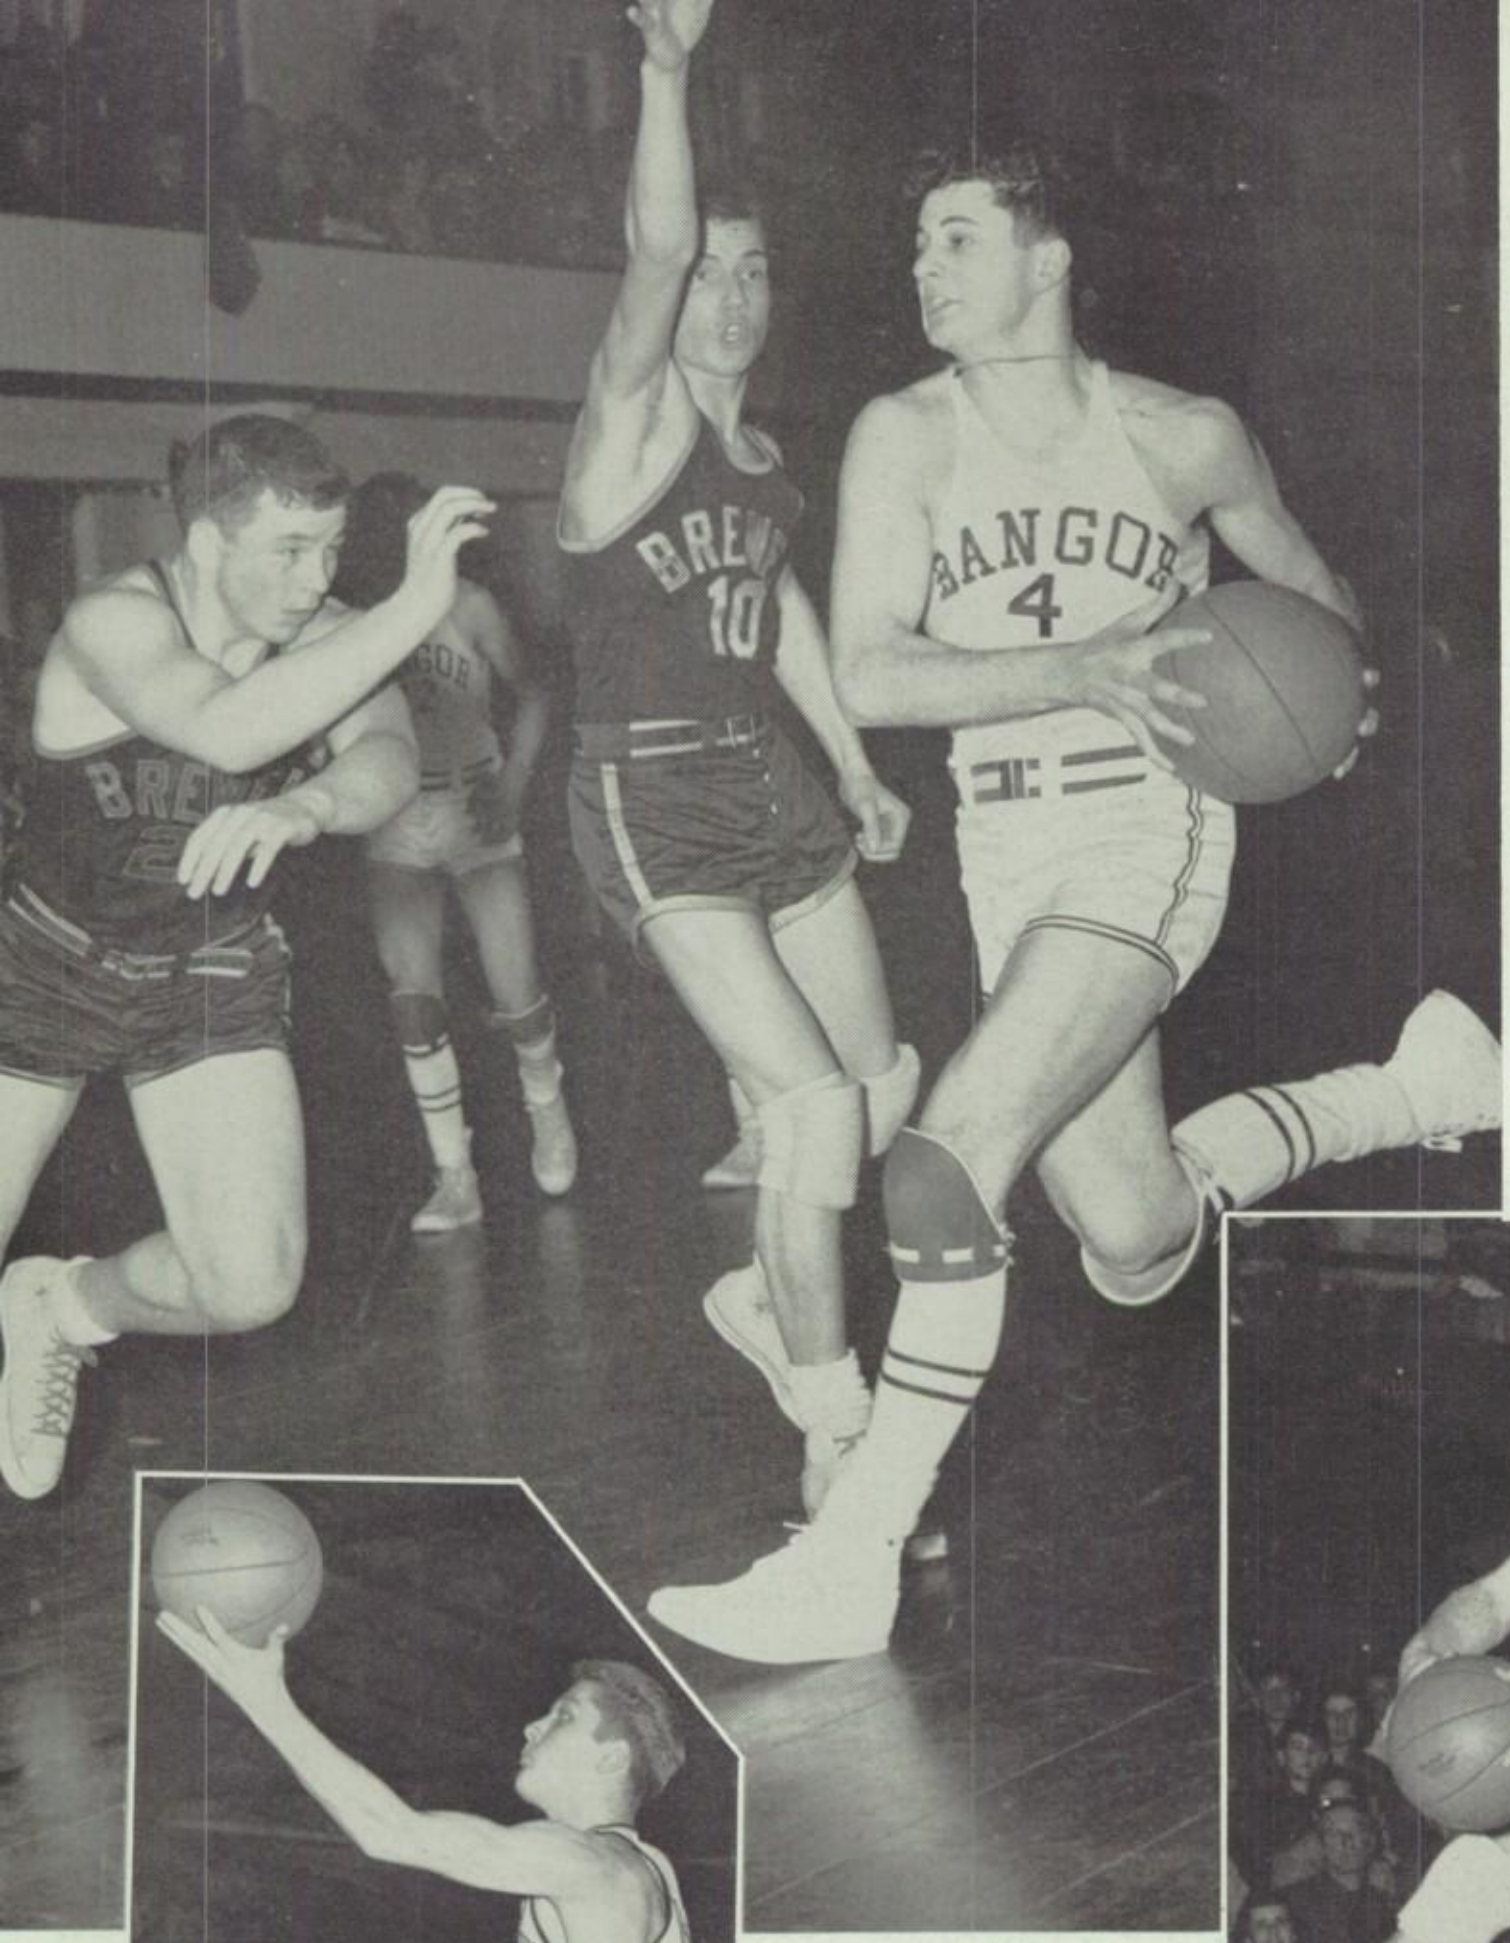
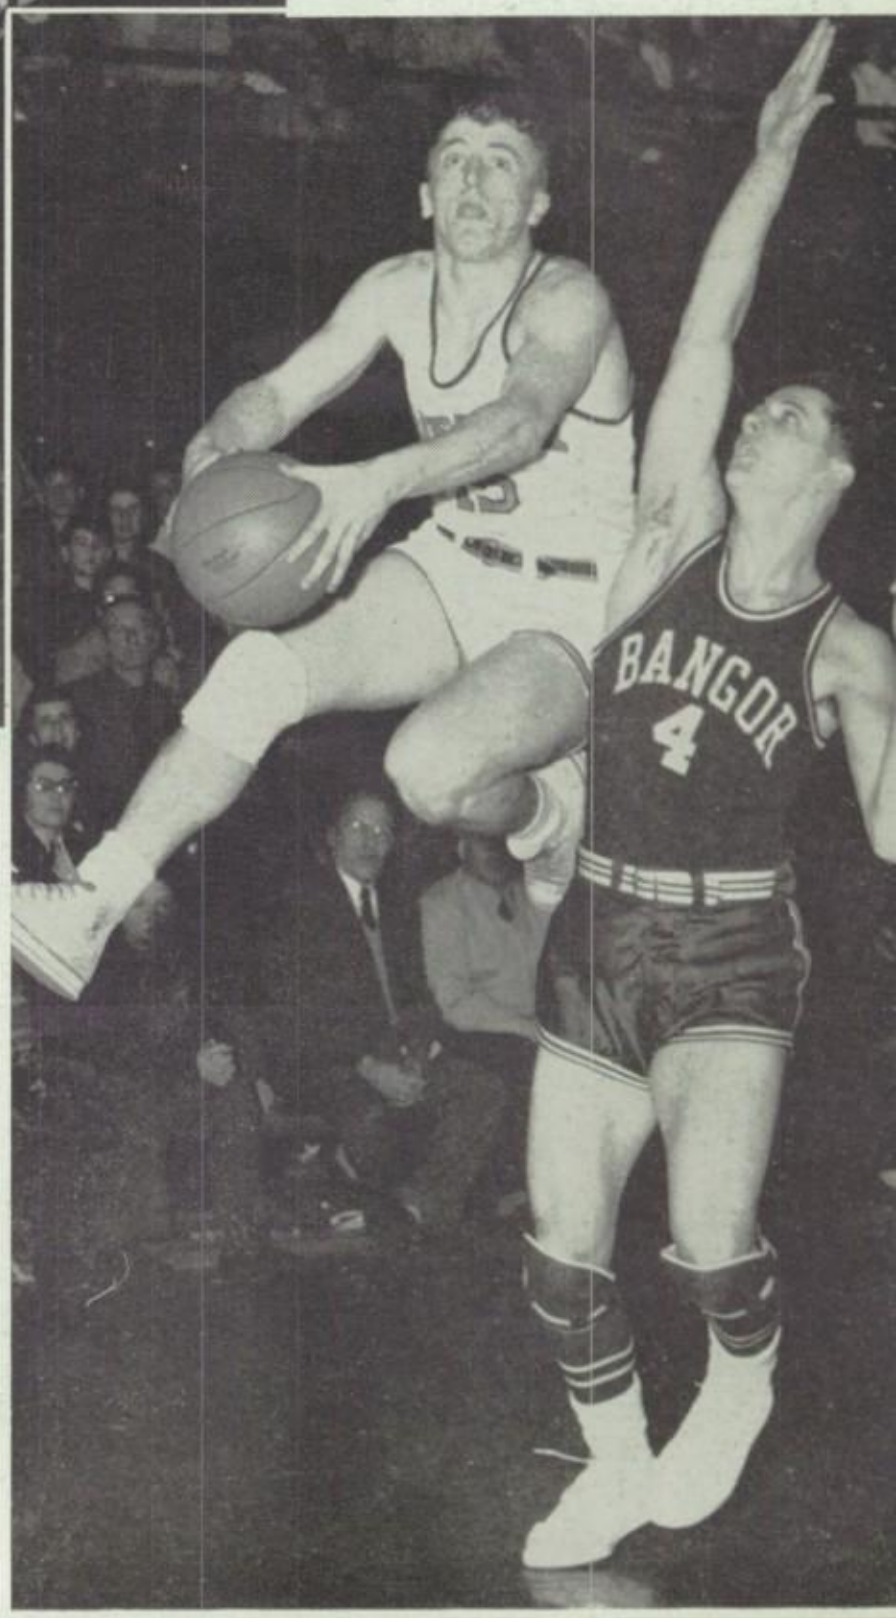
OH NO YOU DON'T!

That is what Dave Allen (10) and Dave Gass (21) have in mind as they attempt to block Don Pelkey's drive shot.

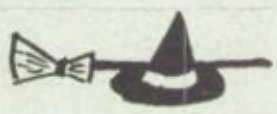






←A TWO-POINTER!

Bob Wiles, high-scoring Witch forward, goes way up to bucket a deuce against the Old Town Indians.



UP AND IN! →

Eddie Dean, our hard-working guard, goes high into the air to score a two pointer against Bangor. Don Pelkey (4) tries to block the shot.

First Row: Grant Dearborn, Dick Gray, Tommy Largay, Bob Connors, John Faulkner, Jimmy Pooler, Gerry Tarr.

Third Row: Dave Tardiff, Percy Cotton, Ira Gifford, John Gass, Arthur Upton.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Coach Tetreau's Brewer Juniors had a bad season this year as far as records go (the team had a 3-13 won-lost record), but they nevertheless achieved their prime purpose—to get the fundamentals of the game and gain some experience. Most of the boys showed fine promise at the end of the year and will bear watching in the near future.

Absent: Lennie Ford.

BREWER TRACK TEAM—1952

The Brewer track team, although winning only one meet, made a very impressive showing this year. The first part of the year proved the squad rather weak, but by the middle of the season Coach Tetreau's boys were really rolling.

The Penobscot Valley Conference meet, a thriller all the way, set Brewer close to the top on the local scene. Then the State track meet, a new venture for the team, placed the Witches high on the list in State competition. When the season was over, Brewer rated high but promised to be even better in the future.

Those receiving letters for the season were John Herrick, Leonard Ford, Stan Clish, Bob Adams, Bob Bower, Ronald Kenney, Dick Law, Chet Kuchinski, Harry Drew.

SERVING EASTERN MAINE

Trusts and Estates

Financial independence and thrift usually go hand in hand. Young people who cultivate the habit of thriftiness are the successful business and professional men of tomorrow.

This bank numbers among its valued customers many who opened their first account during student days.

Our services are available to young and old at any of the thirteen offices in Eastern Maine.
